Online

This webinar will present you the topics of the upcoming Health call 2020, some analysis and interesting statistics from “Health” calls in Horizon 2020, and a short glimpse into the future of “Health” in Horizon Europe.

Horizon 2020 „Health, demographic change and wellbeing“

The next call (= last one in Horizon 2020!) in “Health” with a budget of around 700 Mio € is approaching fast, and first deadlines for topics with two-stage submission are already in September 2019! A variety of interesting topics from digital diagnostics, therapeutic interventions, urban health to various AI applications in health, plus many more, is foreseen!

In this webinar (60min presentation + 15min questions) we will present you the content of the upcoming call, and some “lessons learned”, analysis and interesting statistics from the last years of “Health” calls in Horizon 2020, plus a first glimpse into the future of Horizon Europe.

Speaker: Astrid Hoebertz, National Contact Point for Health in Horizon 2020

This webinar will be held in English.
