

Agenda: EU-Networking-Brunch

How to Stimulate Academic Spin-Offs

Event organized by the FFG-Academy / Department for European and International Programmes

Wednesday, 18. October 2017

“Van Swieten” hall (handicapped accessible)

1090 Vienna, Van Swieten-Gasse 1a

Language: English

Moderation: Andreas Jonke | FFG European and International Programmes

08:30 Registration and Coffee

09:00 Welcome

Barbara Weitgruber | Head of Department for Scientific Research and International Affairs, Austrian Federal Ministry for Science, Research and Economy

Henrietta Egerth | Managing Director of Austrian Research Promotion Agency

09:25 Impuls panorama

Hermann Hauser | Institute for Entrepreneurship Cambridge –Tirol, Amadeus Capital Partners, Acorn Computers and ARM Holdings, and Chair of the HLG of the European Innovation Council

Florian Kirschenhofer | Max Planck Innovation GmbH, Start-Up & Portfolio Manager, Spin-Off-Support & Consultant, former Entrepreneur

Andrea Basso | CTO at MITO Technology, Coordinator and Key-Expert at Progress TT, inventor in more than 50 granted patents, Business Angel and Co-Founder, former CEO of Sisvel Technology and CTO of Sisvel

Irene Fialka | CEO at INiTS – the n°1 Business Incubator in the DACH-region with over 200 supported Start-Ups, former Vice-Chairman at Wing4Innovation, former Start-Up Consultant, former researcher in molecular biology at I.M.P.

10:00 Panel discussion

Following a number of specific questions previously coordinated with Austrian universities

11:00 Culinary networking

13:00 Networking Close

In cooperation with the National Contact Point for Intellectual Property (NCP-IP)